Ordering and Delivery

To place an order, please complete the attached order form with your requirements and send via fax or email. Once we have received your order we will contact you via phone to confirm your catering order.

You will be provided with an invoice for payment. If you are paying in advance or on the day you can complete the Bread and Butter payment form and send this through with your order. Otherwise this form can be submitted with your payment as remittance advice after your event.

To help us best serve you and fulfil your order, orders should be placed 24 hours prior to the event where possible. Should you wish to make any changes to your order once you have placed the order and/or received confirmation, please contact us by phone to do so. If the order is cancelled within 24 hours the order will still be charged at full price.

We will aim to deliver your order at the requested time, however due to peak periods, your order may be delivered up to 30 minutes prior. Delivery is free to all businesses within the Business Park. Delivery outside of the park will be charged at a flat fee of $20. Any relevant equipment required such as platters and cutlery are included as part of this service. Any plastic plates or utensils will incur an additional fee. Platters and any other crockery utensils or equipment will need to be returned to Bread and Butter by 4pm the following day, if equipment is not returned this will incur a fee of $20 per platter and $2 per item of crockery or utensil. By placing this order, it is considered that these conditions have been agreed to.

Please let us know if you have any special requirements or would like to discuss the options available.
